RE: INVITATION TO TANZANIA AND KENYA PEACE DEBATE CHAMPIONSHIP (TAKEPDC 2027) 07th-10th JUNE, 2027 IN ARUSHA, TANZANIA.

This bears reference to the above subject matter: We are happy to invite your esteemed school to the Tanzania and Kenya peace debate championship 2027 (TAKEPDC 2027) from 07th to 10th June 2027 in Arusha, Tanzania. The TAKEPDC 2027 is a platform that invites only the best teams in two countries and other interested schools to register and compete for the title. The theme of the debate is, "The Clash for Fact: Misinformation and Disinformation in the Digital Era".

About the The Living Smile International-The Host of TAKEPDC 2027.

The Living Smile International (LSI), Non-governmental Organization registered in Tanzania with registration number 00NGO/R/5698 (Instagram page the_living_smile4 website, www.lsi.or.tz). Our vision is to be a center of excellence that conducts innovative research, training and capacity building on peace, education, environment and human development for better. Since its inception, it has influenced well over thousands of students from across the country by providing basic schools education equipment, engaging them in climate action, has exposed more than 85 schools to debate platform and hosting successfully the 2026 East Africa Peace Debate Championship (EAPDC 2026) which took place at the Institute of Accountancy Arusha (IAA), Arusha, Tanzania.

1. INTRODUCTION: THE VISION FOR 2027

In East Africa, Tanzania and Kenya share not only borders but also a rich tapestry of interaction. One compelling aspect is that both nations are home to the Maasai people, whose traditional lands stretch across the frontier, fostering a unique cultural bond. Their relationship, however, extends far beyond cultural ties into domains like economy and security.

Historically, Tanzania and Kenya gained independence around the same period, leading to parallel development paths. As members of the East African Community (EAC), they collaborate on initiatives to improve regional integration, infrastructure, trade, and security. This cooperation is fortified by the fact that cross-border trade between the two nations accounts for a significant portion of their economic activity, bolstering their interdependence.

This makes a need to share this history with the youngsters and strengthen diplomatic relation and brotherhood through peace debate platform. However, with over 60% of the population under the age of 25, the future of this peace rests entirely in the hands of the youth. The TAKEPDC 2027 is not just an academic championship; it is a nations wide intellectual movement. As we navigate a world increasingly divided by digital echo chambers, economic pressures, and social polarization, TAKEPDC 2027 will harness the energy of Tanzanian and Kenyan youth, transforming them from passive consumers of information into active architects of social cohesion. By bringing the peace debate stage to every corner of the two nations, we aim to build a generation that fights with ideas not weapons, respecting one another, and builds bridges instead of walls and shaping our shared future together.

2. MAIN OBJECTIVE

To forge a dynamic frontline of young, articulate peacebuilders across Tanzania and Kenya by institutionalizing a culture of rigorous, respectful, and solution-oriented dialogue, ensuring the nation's legacy of peace evolves and thrives in the 21st century.

3. SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES

● Intellectual Empowerment: To train young minds in the arts of critical thinking, fact-checking, and logical reasoning, protecting them against the rising tide of misinformation and digital radicalization.

● Civic Empathy: To force participants to step into the shoes of their opponents, fostering deep-seated empathy, tolerance, and an understanding of diverse Tanzanian and Kenyan cultures and socio-economic realities.

● Policy Incubation: To provide a loud, clear microphone for the youth to propose actionable solutions to real-world challenges, such as climate-driven resource conflicts, youth unemployment, human trafficking, and gender-based violence.

● National Integration: To break down geographical and class barriers by bringing together students from rural and urban schools across the two countries for a shared intellectual journey.

4. EXPECTED OUTCOMES (THE "IMPACT")

● The TAKEPDC Alumni Network: The creation of a 2,000+ strong network of "Youth Peace Ambassadors" equipped to mediate local community disputes and lead civic initiatives.

● The 2027 Youth Peace Charter: A compiled document of the most innovative policies and solutions debated during the championship, to be formally presented to the Ministry of Education and the Ministry of Youth.

● Elevated Academic Standards: A noticeable spike in participating schools' performance in languages (English, French and Kiswahili), research methodologies, active communication and social sciences.

5. CONTRIBUTION OF THE CHAMPIONSHIP/PROGRAM

● To the National Security Framework (Soft Power): By equipping youth to resolve grievances through peace debate respecting each other, the program acts as a grassroots deterrent against civil unrest and youth delinquency.

● To the Economy (Human Capital): Employers today seek soft skills: communication, collaboration, creativity, critical thinking, leadership skills, flexibility, initiative, productivity, sociability, problem-solving and literacy skills (information, media and technology). TAKEPDC 2027 accelerates these skills acquisition, making Tanzanian and Kenyan youth more competitive in the East African and global job markets.

● To Global Leadership: The program directly operationalizes SDG 16 (Peace, Justice, and Strong Institutions) and SDG 4 (Quality Education), Aspiration number four, five and seven of agenda 2063-The Africa we Want, positioning Tanzania and Kenya as a regional leader in youth-driven peace initiatives.

6. JUSTIFICATION: WHY NOW?

In an era dominated by 15-second social media clips, the art of deep, nuanced conversation is fading. When young people lack the vocabulary or the platform to and how to express their frustrations, those frustrations can manifest as apathy or conflict. Furthermore, as Tanzania and Kenya accelerate its economic and technological development, new societal frictions will inevitably arise. TAKEPDC 2027 is a proactive, preventative investment. A peace debate championship requires participants to listen as fiercely as they speak. It teaches that one can attack an idea without attacking the person. There is no better time than now to inoculate our youth against intolerance and equip them with the diplomatic tools they need to lead tomorrow.

7. PARTICIPATION & TEAM CAP COMPETITION ACTIVITIES:

The competition will feature Group debates, public speaking and spelling bee. The group debates will use the World Schools Debate Format used in the World Schools Debate Championship (WSDC). Group Debate will take place in Kiswahili, English and French to encompass the international languages while Public Speaking will take place in French, English and Kiswahili only and spelling bee will be in English only. Poetry and storytelling will be in Kiswahili and English only.

8. TEAM CATEGORIES:

We expect to engage over one thousand plus students, stakeholders and educators (1000+) across the two nations, culminating in a highly publicized peace debate championship in 2027. The TAKEPDC 2027 invites teams from primary schools, secondary schools both Ordinary level and Senior Schools/Advanced Secondary Schools and tertiary level within Tanzania and Kenya for group debate, storytelling, public speaking, poetry and spelling bee. This platform is inclusive as sign language teams for debate both Kiswahili and English are also invited. The Public speaking, storytelling, poetry and spelling bee is a solo championship. Each school, college or university can bring three teams or more for group debate (English, Kiswahili and French) and six individuals for public speaking, storytelling, poetry and six individuals for spelling bee. Spelling bee is strictly for primary school students only.

9. COMPETITION FORMAT:

Speeches will be limited to 4 minutes main speeches and 3 minutes reply speeches with the last round of the day being a silent round. The competition will hold ten rounds with all prepared motions.

10. MOTION THEMES:

Motions will be realized one and half month before the date of the championship. The motions are centered on Peace, Regional Integration, Education, technology, tourism, gender-based violence, human trafficking, agriculture and climate change among other important and topical issues.
